From the desk of the Seneschal:

Greetings from your new Seneschal! I am Denis Cheeseman, son of John Cheeseman, the Royal Falconer of Henry VIII (aka Dennis Smith). I am happy to be taking over as Seneschal from Lady Leota of Rutlandshire and want to thank her for her service to our Canton. While these are challenging times for all, Lady Leota has kept the Canton moving forward, working with everyone to bring our ePOP, ensuring we continued to meet and look to future events.

We are currently looking at several events and are considering the best ways to move forward in light of the great plague of our times. These events may be electronic, in person compliant with the current rules of the society and the state or a blending of both. Of course, we all need to make the determination for ourselves if we are able to participate.

We have several things we have been discussing including: Canton belt favors, currently looking for design ideas, potential A&S outdoor cooking class at HL Aubrey Ericdatter following the current rules for COVID19 at the time and Sunday in the park. These are in the discussion phase only at this time and we welcome your input for these ideas.

Yours In Service
Denis Cheeseman
